THE NEED

In an industry not-often associated with creativity, flair and a deep sense of care, the accounting, finance and business solution firm, All In Advisory, sure stand out. Add to the mix the powerhouse, multi-award winning Founder and Principal, Aly Garrett, and this all-women owned and led team are a force to be reckoned with. So, what led them to book a workshop?

“The workshop was a deliberate move towards team building and bonding, aiming to foster a cohesive work environment. Our goal was clear – to ensure every team member is aligned with our vision, working collaboratively towards a common objective,” said Aly. “By investing in this workshop, we sought not just to build a team but to create a collective force driving towards success with shared purpose and enthusiasm.”

THE SOLUTION

A half-day Little Shove team workshop was held in a private, off-site space with the team of five, providing the right time, space and distraction-free environment to dive deep into the workshop.

“Lesley has an exceptional ability to create an environment where everyone felt not only comfortable but truly encouraged to contribute. The level of authenticity that emanated from each team member was remarkable. Lesley's facilitation skills brought out the best in everyone, fostering a space where openness and genuine expression thrived.”

THE RESULT

Creating lasting and impactful results is imperative in delivering a successful team workshop. “The main takeaways for me and my team were profound. We not only strengthened our bonds through the team-building activities, but we also gained valuable insights into our individual strengths and working styles,” said Aly.

“The workshop helped us align our visions, fostering a shared understanding of our common goals. This newfound clarity has translated into increased motivation and a unified team spirit. The emphasis on authenticity and openness brought a refreshing dynamic to our interactions, creating a positive and empowered atmosphere that continues to resonate with the team.”

THE IMPACT

“Since the workshop, there's been a noticeable positive shift in our team dynamics. Team members are more invested in the business, and there's a collective surge in enthusiasm. The workshop has significantly elevated the team's attitude, and now, we find ourselves all on the same page,” reported Aly.

“Aligning our goals and fostering a deeper understanding of each other's strengths has translated into a more cohesive and motivated team. The impact has been tangible, and we're reaping the benefits in our daily operations and overall team spirit. It was an outstanding success, leaving a lasting positive impact on both individual growth and team dynamics.”
